

HEALTH STUDIES FOCUS AWARD

pcc.edu/programs/health/

The Health Studies Award provides students with an introductory body of knowledge in Health Studies to prepare them for further academic study and transfer to a four-year institution. Benefits of this award include:

- Opportunities to build their understanding of the complex factors, forces and institutions that influence individual, community, environmental and global health;
- Academic support, guidance, and encouragement through faculty-student mentoring; and
- Opportunities to network with local four-year universities and colleges.

The Health Studies Award prepares students to pursue health studies and related programs at the bachelor level. In Oregon, these programs can be found at Portland State University, Oregon State University, Western Oregon University and other schools in the Oregon University System and private colleges.

Students receiving the Health Studies Award will have successfully completed a minimum of 15 credits (with a C or better) from the following choices, which must include:

- Core Health Courses
- An additional course from Elective Health Courses
- Remainder of credits from Elective Health Courses or Approved Related Course List
