SOCIAL JUSTICE

SOCIAL JUSTICE

pcc.edu/programs/social-justice/

DESCRIPTION

PCC's Social Justice program aims to develop an interdisciplinary understanding of systems of power, privilege, and domination including the personal, social, cultural, economic, and political consequences on communities, the environment, and society. Students will explore approaches to social change and social movements and engage in practical campus- and community-based experiences with organizations addressing these issues.

Learn more about the Social Justice Focus Award here: pcc.edu/programs/social-justice/